

They have turned America into an evil land

By

Dr. Mohsen El-Guindy

I am sad! I have lived long enough to see Allah - the lord of creation - humiliated, the seal of the prophets slandered, and the Koran, the last divine revelation to humankind, defiled and burned!

In the United States, there is a gang ferociously attacking Islam as a religion without control. The gang uses in its attack deception, lies and falsehood. The purpose is to annihilate Islam.

These liars and deceivers of the truth are many; I set here as an example: Daniel Pipes, Sam Shamoun, Bill Warner, Robert Spencer, Pamela Geller, Geert Wilders in the Netherland and others. They call themselves "experts" because they think themselves knowledgeable of the Middle East affairs and the religion of Islam, but because of their deceit and lying I call them "the gang". The members of the gang are heavily sponsored by the Religious Right and Zionist organizations. Their aim is to implement an evil and imperialistic agenda against the Muslim world by tarnishing the religion of Islam and convince people that Islam is a wicked religion and Muslims are terrorists and heretics. They took the religion for a laughing stock. Deep root prejudices overcome their senses, and ignorance and despicable bias stain their discourse and publications. In order to deceive the people and convince them with their lies, they published heaps of silly books and articles against Islam and Muslims, books characterized by erroneous information, and false conclusions and assumptions. Their web sites spit out their venom against everything Islamic. They try to seek everywhere vain proofs and groundless causes to refute the truth. They disdain indignantly to acknowledge Allah's Signs and warnings and laugh them to scorn! They do not know that the minute they attacked Islam as a religion, the minute they uttered the word of disbelief.

Allah says about them in the Koran:

And We sent not the Messengers, but good tidings to bear, and warning. Yet do the unbelievers dispute with falsehood, that they may rebut thereby the truth. They have taken My signs, and that they are warned of, in mockery (Al-Kahf, 56).

The rejecters of truth are found in all ages. They stand against the truth and fight against their Creator and His Messengers.

They have such a smug sense of self-righteousness that while they go on doing wrong, they think they are acquiring merit. In consequence, their works shall be doomed to worthlessness, and Allah shall give them no weight on the Day of Judgment. Hell will be their reward, because they denied the truth, and made a jest of Allah's signs and ridiculed His Messenger.

As we read in the Koran:

Say: 'Shall We tell you who will be the greatest losers in their works? Those whose striving goes astray in the present life, while they think that they are working good deeds. Those are they that disbelieve in the signs of their Lord and the encounter with Him; their works have failed, and on the Day of Resurrection We shall not assign to them any weight. That is their recompense - Jahanna (Hell) for that they were unbelievers and took my signs and My Messengers in mockery (Al-Kahf 103-106).

The gang knew in advance that the American people in general had no idea about Islam as a religion, and that they get their information from the biased media, so they worked hard to picture Islam as an evil religion, and its adherents as savages, and bloodthirsty.

Because evil consorts with evil, It is overwhelmingly dangerous to see that the gang and its sponsors succeeded in pushing other influential sectors in the society to follow suit. Now we can see Republican Senators using the issue of Islam phobia in their electoral campaigns (Allen West, Adam Hasner, Newt Gingrich, Diane Black, Joe Walsh, Michele Bachman, etc.). Others, in the Congress, demand to restrict the movement of American Muslims and put them under siege! Others claim that American Muslims are unpatriotic citizens and must not join the army or penetrate the Congress, they must be deported. They even went to the extent of doubting the honesty and patriotism of the two Muslim Senators in the Congress! Republican Michele Bachmann (R-Minn.) went even to the extent of alleging that the Muslim Brotherhood has infiltrated the top levels of the U.S. government.

These arrogant Senators (Republicans in particular) take politics as strictly business. Islam phobia is to them a profitable propaganda for their electoral campaigns. Islam phobia is their main concern because their minds are empty of any meaningful issues that might benefit their voters. No wonder some of them failed in the last elections, and some passed with a small minority (2%).

Rep. Peter King (R-N.Y.), the chair of the House Committee on Homeland Security has scheduled a fifth hearing on radicalization within the Muslim-American community. King said that his committee would hold hearings on Islamist money coming into the United States and on "Iran's intelligence services, proxies such as Hezbollah, and its ally of convenience, al-Qaeda; and the looming Iranian terror threat to the homeland.

The hearings led by King awakened a storm of controversy, with critics questioning whether Congress should single out a specific minority group as a possible threat to national security. King's hearings dredged up the dark days of McCarthyism and only served to "vilify" a segment of the American population.

Neoconservatives and members of the Tea Party also joined the comedy and their irresponsible and silly statements about Islam showed their hatred and bigotry.

The Religious Right expressed in the televangelicals, radioevangelicals, pastors, and the so called Evangelical Christian leaders exemplified by Franklin Graham, Pat Robertson, Benny Hinn, J. Don George, Paul Mills, Brent Arterbury, the deceased Jerry Falwell, etc., who are sometimes called by their people 'false prophets', are the ones who started all this hatred against Muslims and Islam; and we watch them quite often in their TV stations barking out their malice against everything Islamic.

All these parties, sects and denominations of the American society, together with the gang, succeeded in turning the American society into a furnace burning the love that once existed between the American people. They spread discord and mischief in the land. The falsehood they disseminated among the people tore the society apart.

Quite sadly, Islam phobia became part of America; it has been seeping and creeping through the body politic for years. In the decade since September 11, anti-Arab and anti-Muslim bigotry has become an entrenched feature of America's political and social landscape. It lurks in the hidden corners of everyday life—in classrooms and offices and housing complexes—as well as in the ugly scenes that occasionally explodes into public consciousness.

All these groups and sects sowed the seeds of hatred between non-Muslim and Muslim Americans without any logical reason. They transformed the peaceful society into a land of dissension and discord. They have in fact transformed America into an evil land vulnerable to Allah's wrath.

The arrogance of such misled groups and their attack on Islam without an atom of shame stems from the fact that they do not believe in Islam as the religion of truth, and Allah as the only Creator of the universe, and the Koran as the last divine Book sent to the world entire. They therefore gave themselves the right to mock and humiliate the Word of Allah, and to spread falsehood about Muhammad the seal of the Prophets!

The gang, its supporters and hypocrite applauders were so foolish as not to realize that the material they used in their vicious attack against Islam was the Koran - the Word of Allah their Creator. They were attacking a Book that came specifically for them to warn them of a mighty Day if they do not follow the right path. Even so, Allah causes the Koran to enter into the hearts of the sinners.

This gang and its supporters, living in their very material world, have acquired wealth and power that created a sort of false confidence in them. Such people do not give due importance to the Hereafter, even if they are warned of it. They cannot believe that Allah who has given them honour in this world will dishonour them in the Hereafter.

The false confidence in every age has been the greatest cause of the rejection of the call of Truth by the influential members of a society, and when they reject something or look at it with contempt, men of lesser stature follow suit. In this way the common people, as well the elite are prevented from accepting the truth.

They thought that because they have firmly established themselves in the land, have accumulated wealth and power, and can clearly see the manifestation of their own greatness and popularity around them, they are protected from Allah's punishment. Most certainly, their material achievements and rebellion against Allah would not be able to save them in the least from Allah's scourge.

They are unaware that the wealth and power they acquired in the present life are for putting human beings to the test and are not meant as rewards. Abundance of wealth and possession of power are not signs of nearness to Allah, nor does their shortage indicate being at a distance from Him. What we have to ask ourselves, whether being poor or rich; are we the least bit nearer to Allah? All possessions are but a shadow that will pass away. Its intrinsic and material value is small.

Only those who always remember Allah and kept themselves within the limits lay down by Him, are really close to Allah. These people shall be treated as deserving of Allah's eternal blessings and rewards in the Hereafter.

We read in the Koran:

It is neither your wealth nor your children that will bring you nearer to Us, except for him who believes, and does righteousness; - those - there awaits them the double recompense for that they did, and will live safely in the lofty dwellings of Paradise (Saba', 37).

They think they have something to stand upon, but the fact is: they have grown bold in hypocrisy. To all of them hypocrisy is a way of life. They wish they could falsify the truth and quench the very light of Allah by propagating false rumours and uttering error against Him and His true servants, but Allah always completes His light even though this is hateful to the rejecters of truth.

They deemed Islam is false, and that was made fair seeming in their hearts. They did not understand that their plot against Islam will ruin them, and on the Day of Judgment, they will be among the losers. They are indeed worthless folk with no sense. These are the ones upon whose hearts and hearing and sight Allah has put a seal. It is they who are heedless, and in the life to come, they will be the losers.

They live their life in "today". They do not pay attention to tomorrow. What, do they think that Allah has created them only for sport, and that they would not be returned to Him?

Allah's signs are all clear, but are not for those who mock, who fails to see the majesty, beauty, order, and harmony blazoned in His creation, and His goodness to all His creatures, in the heavens and on earth. With Him are the sources of all things and He does really gives His gifts in due measure. He holds the keys of life and death, and he will remain when all else passes away. This is the God we Muslims worship, no god is there but He, and yet, they humiliate Him and mock at His Message of divine mercy and utter bliss.

Those who intentionally assert falsehood are but those who deny Allah's revelations and it is they who lie in their teeth.

The Koran says about them:

Upon the Day when Allah shall raise them up all together, and they will swear to Him, as they swear to you, and think they are on something. Surely, they are the liars! (Al-Mujadilah, 18).

Only those who deny Islam as a true religion, dispute Allah's signs. No one contend with opposing argument against Allah's signs but those who deny Allah and refuse to acknowledge His authority.

The Koran reads:

None but the unbelievers dispute concerning the signs of Allah (Ghafir, 4).

But what if Islam is true (which it is of course) and Allah is the sole Creator of the universe, and Muhammad is His last Prophet and Messenger? The consequences of such vicious attack on Islam would be certainly terrible.

Drowned in their arrogance, and sunk in worldly glories and pleasures, they thought that because they do not believe in Islam as a religion it was safe to attack and humiliate Allah their Creator, defile and burn the Koran and slander the Prophet. They did not realize that they were in fact but compiling grave sins over their heads. They were very heedless of Allah's wrath when it touches the evildoers. They beguile none save themselves but they perceive not. They must not think they are safe from the doom - painful doom is theirs.

Allah says in His Koran:

If Allah should take men to task for what they have earned He would not leave upon the face of the earth one creature that crawls; but He is deferring them to a stated term. But when their term is come – surely Allah sees His servants (Fatir, 45).

The gang and its supporters are arrogant and so short-sighted as to think they are firmly established on earth, and secure in their privileges. They should have looked back at the past to see greater nations who failed in their duty towards Allah and were wiped out in requital of their transgression of the divine Law, their offences against the Creator, and their violation of the religious and moral principles. Allah replaced them by other people who listened to reason. In their fate, the gang and its supporters must read their own fate.

We read in the Koran:

Have they not regarded how We destroyed before them many a generation We established in the earth, such as We have not given to you, and how We loosed heaven upon them in torrents, and made the rivers to flow beneath them? Then We destroyed them because of their sins, and raised up after them other generations (Al-An'am, 6).

These prominent groups that were supposed to set an example to their community, instead of teaching their community truth and realism about Islam, promulgated falsehood and misconception. They did not realize that by misleading their community they bring about its destruction. When leaders of this kind dominate a community, it is to be expected that Allah has taken a decision to punish it!

If a study is made of communities Allah had destroyed from the time of Noah to the present day, the history of each community will confirm the correctness of this general principle.

The Koran says:

And when We desire to destroy a city, We command its men who live at ease, and they commit ungodliness therein, so that the Word is realized against it, and We destroy it utterly (Al-Isra', 16).

The Koran they doubt and belie is in fact the truth from Allah, the Lord of the world. It is an exposition of everything; it is guidance, a mercy, and glad tidings for those who have submitted themselves to Allah as Muslims. In the Koran, the focus is not on worldly knowledge or gain, but on success or failure in the Hereafter. The Koran lays down broad principles covering the entire range of conduct, which will lead to success in the Hereafter. Those who are guided by these principles will merit divine blessings, while those who neglect them will only give grounds for their own destruction.

And We have sent down on thee the Book making clear everything, and as guidance and a mercy, and as good tidings to those who surrender (Al-Nahl, 89).

The Koran has been revealed to present the Truth, which is the pure and unadulterated religion of Allah. Those who are seekers after truth will find answer in the Koran and they will find their peace of mind.

Say: 'The Holy Spirit (Archangel Gabriel) sent it down from thy Lord in truth, and to confirm those who believe, and to be guidance and good tidings to those who surrender (Al-Nahl, 102).

Allah swears that the Koran is the most honourable, and it confers great favours on those who receive it. It is well guarded, precious in itself, and well preserved in its purity. None but the clean shall touch it – clean in body, mind, thought, intention and soul; only such can achieve real contact with its full meaning. It is a Revelation from the Lord of the worlds, and therefore universal for all.

In the Koran Allah testifies that the divine Book He descended upon Muhammad is an absolute truth of certainty.

No! I swear by the setting of the stars and that is indeed a mighty oath, did you but know it, it is surely a Noble Koran in Book well-guarded none but the purified shall touch, a sending down from the Lord of all Being. What, do you hold this discourse in disdain, and do you make it your living to declare it false? (Al-Waqi'ah 75-82).

The purity of the text of the Koran through fourteen centuries is a foretaste of the eternal care of which Allah's truth is guarded through all ages. All corruptions, inventions, and accretions pass away, but Allah's pure and Holy Truth – the Koran – will never suffer eclipse even though the whole world mocked at it and was bent on destroying it.

Allah says in His last Testament to the world:

'It is We who have sent down the Remembrance (the Koran) and We watch over it (Al-Hijr, 9).

Allah himself bears witness that He has sent down the Koran upon Muhammad in truth, and by His authority and knowledge. The angels also bear witness, and enough Allah himself to be the witness.

But Allah bears witness to that He has sent down to thee; He has sent it down with His knowledge; and the angels also bear witness, and Allah suffices for a witness (Al-Nisa', 166).

Those who go wrong and treat the Koran as falsehood, for them is an entertainment with boiling water and burning in Hell Fire.

But if he of them that cried lies, and went astray, there shall be hospitality of boiling water and the roasting in Hell. Surely, this is the truth of certainty (Al-Waqi'ah 92-95).

How they judge? Think they that none has power over them? Think they that their wealth will render them immortal? Neither their riches nor their children shall avail them anything against Allah. On the Day of Judgment, they will be struck with horror when they realize that they are the inhabitants of Hell, therein dwelling forever.

When they are asked to desist and put limits to their aggression, they insolently claim that they live in a free country and their constitution allows them to express anything they wish to disclose! They think they have complete freedom to reject and humiliate the truth. They even have the justifications for erroneous thoughts, words and deeds. Their attack against Islam and Muslims led to the spread of discord between Muslim and non-Muslim Americans, as well as gaining the enmity of the Muslim world.

Spreading mischief in the land and sowing the seeds of dissension in the society is an act of treason. The provocateurs are in fact traitors to their country and must be stopped.

How they judge? No one on earth can frustrate Allah and His Messengers. Allah has decreed that He and His Messengers shall certainly prevail.

As we read in the Koran:

Allah has decreed: 'It is I and My Messengers who must prevail.' For Allah is One full of Strength, able to enforce His will (Al-Mujadalah, 18).

Such is Allah's way since He first created man and the universe. The ungodly cannot enjoy the fruits of their unrighteousness even if their punishment be delayed a little while.

The Koran says:

(This was Our) way with the Messengers We sent before you, and you will not find any change in Our ways (Al-Isra', 77).

The plot of the gang against Islam reminds me of the story of a similar gang conspired against Allah's Prophet Salih to impede the truth. Allah sent Prophet Salih to his people of the city of Thamud (the Thamudites) to worship Allah their Creator, and abandon idol worship. But there were nine great chiefs in the city conspiring to belittle the truth and kill Salih. But on them recoiled the plot. Before they could take any steps against Salih, Allah seized hold of them. In spite of all their might they were totally destroyed; only dilapidated ruins of their ancient towns, still stand there as a memorial to them.

The Koran says:

There were nine men in the city that spread corruption in the land without making amends. They said, 'Let us bind ourselves by an oath sworn by the name of Allah that we shall attack this man and his household in the night, then say to his kin, 'We were not present when they were slain, we are telling the truth.' Therefore, they devised their evil plan, but We too made a plan of which they were unaware. See how their scheming ended? We destroyed them utterly, along with all their people. Because of their evil deeds, their homes are desolate ruins. In that, surely, there is a sign for people who have knowledge – but We saved those who believed and feared Allah (Al-Naml 48-52).

Allah works in mercy for His servants, and in just punishment for those who do wrong. Thus was it in Noah's story, for he worked unselfishly for his people, though rejected of them. Allah delivered Noah and those who believed with him in the Ark and drowned those who rejected His signs.

The Koran narrates:

(Prophet) tell them the story of Noah. He said to his people, 'My people, if my presence among you and my reminding you of Allah's signs is too much for you, then I put my trust in Allah. So devise your plot, you and your partners, then carry out your decision on me and give me no respite. But if you turn away, I have asked no reward from you, my reward is with Allah alone, and I am commanded to be one of those who devote himself to Him.' But they rejected him. We saved him and those with him on the Ark and let them survive; and We drowned those who denied Our revelations – see what was the end of those who were forewarned!

(Yunus 71-73).

The Koran narrates that neither nations nor individuals, however mighty, prosperous, or firmly established, can survive if they transgress the Law of Allah which He has bestowed on His servants. When the evildoers and rejecters of truth heaped mischief on mischief and spread corruption in the land, they were swept away.

The Koran says:

Have you (Prophet) considered how your Lord dealt with (the people) of Ād of Iram (the city) of lofty pillars, whose like has never been made in any land, and the Thamud, who hewed into the rocks in the valley, and the mighty and powerful Pharaoh? All of them committed excesses in their lands, and spread corruption there: Your Lord let a scourge of punishment loose on them. Your Lord is always on the watch (Al-Fajr 6-14).

Generations before us, Allah destroyed when they did wrong. Their Messengers came to them with the clear signs, but they would not believe. Allah annihilated them with their cities.

Before you people, We destroyed whole generations when they did evil – their Messengers brought them clear signs but they refused to believe. This is how We repay the guilty. Later We made you their successors in the land, to see how you would behave (Yunus 13, 14).

The annihilation of evil nations is thus a reality. But man is arrogant and quickly forgets the lessons of history. If he contemplates just a little, he would realize that the vastness of heaven and earth negates his greatness. The reality of death proves that he is perishable and truly powerless. Allah time and again, causes the truth to be revealed, thus disproving man's claim to greatness. But man does not learn the lesson until he is destroyed.

The ruins of the evil nations are concrete examples of the results of human folly. The very day that these people thought that their strength was greater than that of Allah, they were annihilated. They counselled deaf and with self-inordinate self-esteem insolently said, 'Who is greater than us in power; we are the mighty ones yet.' Do they not see that Allah who created them is infinitely greater in power and far mightier than they are!

A great lesson is hidden in such historical events. But those who are capable of connecting such events with Allah's wrath when it is poured on evil nations may only learn this lesson. Conversely, those who attribute such events to physical causes cannot learn any lesson from them.

The scientists of geographic history called such destructions of communities as took place in the past "climate pulsation", as if whatever happened was the result of a geographical upheaval. The fact is that these events were not merely geographical events in the simple sense. They were manifestations of Allah's will. This shows that the system of the present world is based on justice. Here according to the law of nature itself, a transgressor will receive punishment for his transgression, while the righteous one will receive a reward for his just behaviour. To call these events "climatic pulsation" amounts to consigning them to the geographical realm. On the contrary, if these events are treated as forms of divine retribution, they can teach great lessons about the fear of Allah and create anxiety about the Hereafter.

The catastrophic climatic events, which occur nowadays, are small signs and a warning before the occurrence of more severe climatic disasters that would eliminate evil nations. It is Allah's plan that evil nations are given respite for some period haply they may be understanding and be god-fearing.

Allah says in His Koran:

That is the tidings of the cities We relate to thee; some of them are standing and some stubble. And We wronged them not, but they wronged themselves; their gods availed them not that they called upon, apart from Allah, anything, when the command of thy Lord came; and they increased them not, save in destruction. Such is the seizing of thy Lord, when He seizes the cities that are evildoing; surely His seizing is painful terrible. Surely in that is a sign for him who fears the chastisement in the world to come; that is a day mankind are to be gathered to, a day to witness, and We shall not postpone it, save to a term reckoned (Hud 100-104).

However, Allah would never unjustly destroy communities while their people were trying to reform.

Allah says:

Yet thy Lord would never destroy the cities unjustly, while as yet their people were putting things right (Hud, 117).

Based on the above, the natural disasters exemplified by Hurricane sandy, which caused $125 billion loss; the 2011 Miscopy River Flood which also caused several billion loss; the 2011 largest tornado outbreak causing 5 billion in damage; the 2012 tornadoes, floods, droughts and wildfire forcing the American tax payers to suffer a loss of $25 billion; in addition to vicious financial crisis and recession – are not to be considered as “climate pulsation”, but rather the wrath of Allah affecting evil nation or nations mocking at His only religion Islam, slandering His seal of the Prophets and His best of creation Muhammad, and defiling, belying and burning His last Word to all mankind, the Noble Koran!

Allah has allotted to the haters of Islam - his only religion in all generations - satanic companions who would follow them like their shadows and give them evil counsel and allure them to brighter present and happier destiny by negating resurrection and affirming that black was white. They painted in glowing colours the pleasure of sin in the past and the pleasure of sin in the future. All these evildoers and their satanic companions, and future generations who embrace evil were born to be losers and Allah will recompense them a severe penalty.

The Koran says:

We have allotted them comrades (of like nature), and they have decked out fair to them that which is before them and behind them. So against them has been realized the Word (the torment) concerning nations that passed away before them, men and jinn alike; surely they were losers (Fussilat, 25).

This gang and its hypocrite applauders as well as its treacherous sponsors think they are on something, but in reality they have no firm ground to stand upon, they are but a bunch of fools spreading mischief in the land, thus exposing their country to Allah’s wrath.

The gang and its supporters promulgate the falsehood that it is a crime to be a Muslim! I would truthfully say, “It is an honour to be a Muslim. Islam teaches that the best of men is the man of faith who calls men to Allah. His life is pure and his law of life is the will of Allah. He eschews all evil, and worship Allah alone. The Muslim believer calls all to the truth of the One true God, Allah, showing that his thoughts are not centred on himself; every deed of his is righteousness, thus showing no divergence between his preaching and his conduct.

The Koran says:

And who speaks fairer than he who calls unto Allah and does righteousness and says, ‘Surely I am of them that bow in Islam? (Fussilat, 33).

Muslims are the best nation singled out for people: they order what is right, forbid what is wrong, and worship the one God, Allah, and no other.

The people of the Book (Jews and Christians) if only they had faith, would be Muslims, for they had been prepared for Islam. Unfortunately, there is unfaith, but it can never harm those who carry the banner of faith and right, which according to Allah's plan must always be victorious.

The Koran clearly states:

You are the best of peoples, evolved for humankind, enjoining what is right, forbidding what is wrong, and believing in Allah. If only the people of the Book had faith, it was best for them: among them are some who have faith, but most of them are perverted transgressors (Al-Imran, 110).

Although Muslims are persecuted in America without reason except for prejudice and hatred, I must here emphasize that Allah has promised the believers who have faith and obey His Law – the Koran – that they will acquire power and authority on the land not by way of favouritism, but in order that they may maintain Allah's Law, that the Religion of Right, which Allah has chosen for them, will be openly established and will suppress all wrong and oppression; and that the righteous will live in peace and security, instead of having to suffer persecution, or practise the rites of their faith in secret.

The Koran says:

Allah has promised those of you who believe and do righteous deeds, that He will surely make you successors in the land, even as He made those who were before them successors, and that He will surely establish their religion for them, that He has approved for them, and will give them in exchange, after their fear security: 'They shall serve Me, not associating with Me anything.' (Al-Nur, 55).

The Haters and attackers of Islam think that by such blunder and nonsense they are annoying Muslims. But Muslims in fact do not give a dam, because these morons have founded their attack on the brink of a crumbling bank that will tumble with them into the Fire of Hell. Yes, Allah has appointed Hell a dungeon for them to abide therein forever. They will endure the heat thereof, condemned, rejected. That is the extreme abasement.

Or maybe the lunatic Terry Jones and his peers think they have been pardoned of sin through the death of Jesus by crucifixion. Because of such distorted thinking, they thought they could commit sins, as they like without any accountability because they were already forgiven! This silly, fabricated theory of vicarious atonement is totally rejected by the Koran.

Islam teaches that salvation is attainable only through the worship of Allah alone (strict Islamic monotheism), and then follow His commandments by doing good deeds as mentioned in the Koran and the teachings of the Prophet. The responsibility of any person is exclusively his, since he is sane and has free will to distinguish between good and evil.

The Koran states:

Whoever goes right, then he goes right only for the benefit of his own self. And whoever goes astray, then he goes astray to his own loss. No one laden with burdens can bear another's burden (Al-Isra', 15).

Man is therefore rewarded for his own deeds, good or bad, and not for anybody else's deeds.

We read in the Koran:

And no bearer of burdens shall bear another's burden, and if one heavily laden calls another to (bear) his load, nothing of it will be lifted even though he be near of kin (Fatir, 18).

This understanding of individual responsibility leads man to refrain from any false hope of getting help from other people (Jesus, saint, pope, priest, idol, etc.), as Allah will say in the day of Judgment:

So today, none of you can profit or harm one another. (Saba', 42).

Allah also says:

And every one of them will come to Him alone on the Day of Resurrection (without any helper, or protector or defender) (Mariam, 95).

The fact is that every soul will carry its own burden, and no one will carry somebody else's burden. There is no vicarious atonement here. It will be a Day when a soul, which has a heavy load of sins, would look for a close person to help, but it will be turned down.

Allah says:

No person earns any (sin) except against himself (only), and no bearer of burdens shall bear the burden of another. Then unto your Lord is your return (Al-An'am, 164).

Allah also says:

O mankind! Be afraid of your Lord (by keeping your duty to Him and avoiding all evil), and fear a Day when no father can avail aught for his son, or a son avail aught for his father. Verily, the Promise of Allah is true, let not then this present life deceive you, nor let the chief deceiver (Satan) deceive you about Allah. (Luqman, 33).

Because of the terrible situation of that day, no relation is honoured and every person will stand alone without any company but his own record.

As we read in the Koran:

Neither your relatives nor your children will benefit you on the Day of Resurrection (against Allah). He will judge between you. And Allah is the All-Seer of what you do (Al-Mumtahinah, 3).

In that great Day, everyone will be busy saving himself from the torment without paying attention to anybody else.

Allah says in the Koran:

(Remember) the Day when every person will come up pleading for himself, and everyone will be paid in full for what he did and they will not be dealt with unjustly. (An-Nahl, 111).

The great horror in that day makes some people think of running away from their evil deeds. The Koran draws a picture of such incident where a person with an evil record wants to escape the punishment.

Though they shall be made to see one another, the criminal (the sinner) would desire to ransom himself from the punishment of that Day by his children, and his wife and his brother, and his kindred who sheltered him, and all that are in the earth, so that it might save him. By no means! Verily, it will be the Fire of Hell! (Al-Ma'arej 11-15).

In this clarity, the Koran explains the principle of individual responsibility where everyone is solely responsible for his own deeds, and that Allah leaves man free to choose between the right way or the wrong path, but in all cases, he must not forget the result of the path he chose, as Allah swears in the Koran:

Nay, and by the moon, and by the night when it withdraws, and by the dawn when it brightens, verily, it is but one of the greatest calamities (Hell). A warning to mankind, to any of you that chooses to go forward (by doing righteous deeds), or to remain behind (by committing sins). Every soul shall be pledged for what it has earned. (Al-Mudathir 32-38).

The several sects, groups, denominations and parties attacking Islam, particularly in the United States, put worldly interests first; total and unconditional devotion to truth appears unwise because their true allegiance is to their worldly interests; only on the superficial level can they attach themselves to the truth. They consider themselves clever. They think they are safeguarding themselves in this world, and also qualifying to be considered among the pious. But this is no more than a dream; it is a figment of their imagination rather than a real fact. Their hypocrisy is like cancer, which keeps on growing. They call their policy of persecuting Muslims one of reform; but this just shows how distorting their reasoning is. If they were to think deeply, they will realize that they are in fact opposing, rejecting and fighting their Creator. This distorted policy would certainly expose their country to the wrath of Allah.

This is when Satan has the opportunity to get the better of them and turn their mind in the wrong direction. Keeping them busy with false justifications, Satan goes on assuring them that they are on the right path. The spell of deceit is broken only when they die and meet their death and are resurrected for the final reckoning.

The Koran says:

Whosoever turns away blindly from the revelations (the Koran) We appoint for him Satan to be a companion to him. And verily they (Satan) hinder them from the path (of Allah), but they think they are guided aright! (Az-Zukhruf 36, 37).

In this world the enemies of Allah make friends with anyone who supports their falsehood (hypocrite applauders and supporters), but in the Hereafter they will curse them. They will want to stay so far away from them that they should be able to neither see their faces nor hear their voices. Allah will recompense them all with disgrace in this life, and on the Day of Judgment, they shall be consigned to the most grievous torment. All partners in evil will certainly share in the punishment. Their torment shall not be lightened nor shall they be helped.

We read in the Koran:

When such a person comes to Us, he will say (to his Satan), 'If only you had been as far away from me as the east is from west. What an evil companion!' (It will be said to them); 'You have done wrong. Having partners in punishment will not console you today.' (Az-Zukhruf 36-39).

Islam as a religion suffered humiliation at the hand of the televangelists. These spreaders of falsehood about Islam forgot that death will overtake them and they will be brought back to their Lord. They deceive their people by treading the path of selfish desire and give in to satanic inducements, but outwardly, bearing the label of religion. They think that their actions are truly guided by Allah. Whenever the pure truth is presented to them, they become its bitterest opponents. They attacked Islam with foul epithets and denied Allah's revelations. Allah shall put them to torture and will expose them to dreadful conflagration, as often as their skins are consumed, He will replace them with new skins so that they taste the merciless but just punishment.

The Koran says:

We shall send those who reject Our revelations to the Fire. When their skins have been burned away, We shall replace them with new ones so that they may continue to feel the pain: Allah is Mighty, All-Wise (Al-Nisa', 56).

That is their reward: Hell, because they mocked His Revelation and Messenger. Thus, Allah repays the wrong – doers.

Allah says in His Koran:

And on the Day of Resurrection, thou (Muhammad) see those who lied concerning Allah with their faces blackened. Is not the home of the scorners in Hell? (Az-Zumar, 60).

We also read:

Enter you the gates of Hell to dwell therein. Evil is the habitation of the scornful (Ghafir, 76).

Prophet Muhammad was sent to this world to convey the divine religion to man. He delivered to the whole world the road map to Paradise. He was a mercy sent to the whole universe. To favour and respect the Prophet of Islam is as good as favouring Allah the lord of creation. Those who harass the Prophet forget that they are actually dealing with a representative of Allah, and those who harass Allah's representative Allah has cursed them in the present life and the Hereafter.

We read in the Koran:

Those who hurt Allah and His Messenger – them Allah has cursed in the present world and the world to come, and has prepared for them a humbling chastisement (Al-Ahzab, 57).

Priests and televangelists had immensely attacked Islam as a religion, Muhammad as the Prophet of Islam, and the Koran as the last Word of Allah to humanity. They used their pulpits and TV stations to belie the Koran and claim that it was evil, outright lies, and a theft from the Bible. These hate mongers bend on a system of faith, which does not have the standing upon the ground of truth. Yet, they ridicule the perfect religion of Islam and claim that it is evil and false!

Islam phobic fear mongering, demonization and dehumanization, which were promulgated by televangelists through cable channels and radio stations across America, enabled the US government to legitimize invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq and expand wars from Pakistan to Yemen to Somalia. These took the lives of hundreds of thousands of Muslims, under the guise of "war on terror."

Israel and Zionism have always been racist toward Palestinians and other non-Jews, otherwise how else could the televangelists justify the expulsion and exclusion of millions of Palestinians solely because they are not Jews?

While the world was united in horror at Britvic's massacre, several commentators in Israel's mainstream media were much more understanding of his motives, if not for his actions.

An editorial in The Jerusalem Post offered sympathy for Britvic's anti-Muslim ideology and called on Norway to act on the concerns expressed in his manifesto, while an op-ed published by the same paper said that the youth camp Britvic attacked had been engaged in "a pro-terrorist program".

Meanwhile, an article in the American Jewish newspaper 'The Forward' noted that on many mainstream internet forums, Israelis expressed satisfaction with Britvic's massacre and thought that Norway got what it deserved (1).

The American televangelists also pictured Muslims as demonic and satanic; they are trying to take over the world; Islam teaches violence; it is not a religion but a cult; a political system bent on the overthrow of the governments of the world.

If these televangelists were truly men of God, could they so shamelessly attack a divine Book and slander its Prophet? Surely, they are not men of God, but a shameless fraud. Their message is not the true Gospel of Jesus but to take advantage of desperate people. They are not godly ministers but greedy impostors who corrupt the Word of Allah for money's sake. They are not real pastors who shepherd the flock of God but hirelings whose only design is to fleece the sheep. Their love of money is glaringly obvious in what they say as well as how they live. They claim to possess great spiritual power, but in reality, they are enemies of everything holy.

These false preachers tell you one thing, but reality is something else. Their prophecies are imaginary and unfulfilled. They lie in wait to deceive the people, when in fact, they only plot against their own souls, but they perceive it not.

Pat Robertson prophesized on one of Benny Hinn's shows that God told him Mitt Romney will win the U.S. 2012 presidential election, but not only that, but Mitt will be elected to a second term!

Pat Robertson cited communication with God in predicting that horrific terrorism aimed at the United States will result in "mass killing" during the second half of 2007. "The Lord didn't say nuclear, but I do believe it'll be something like that - that'll be a mass killing, possibly millions of people, major cities injured."

"There will be some very serious terrorist attacks," he added. "The evil people will come after this country, and there's a possibility - not a possibility, a definite certainty - that chaos is going to rule." Robertson did not say where the terrorism would occur.

Predicting events for the coming year is an annual tradition for Robertson. He further said, "What I feel is what the Lord is saying, and it is going to happen, I put these things out with humility."

Robertson claims to be speaking in the name of the Lord. Well, the year 2007 had come and gone. Where were the mass killings in the US? What major cities were injured? Where is the chaos?

We are also having a proliferation of false prophets like Benny Hinn with mega-platforms around the world seducing people with prophecies that fail. They are all sensationalistic. People fall for them because they do not know the Scriptures. His prophecies never happened.

Jesus warned his people about false prophets: 'Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.' (Matthew 7:15).

Jesus also warned his people about the end times: 'For false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders to deceive even the elect.' (Matthew 24:24).

Peter warned the church: 'But there were false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies ...' (2 Peter 2:1a).

'What is the end of false prophets? But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars — their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulphur. This is the second death.' (Revelation 21:8).

Prophet Muhammad, the seal of the prophets said, 'The Hour will not begin until thirty Dajjals (deceiver – evil liars) have appeared, each of them claiming that he is the Messenger of Allah.' [Sunan Abu Dawud].

And who can be more unjust than he who invents a lie against the Lord of creation, or says, 'a revelation has come to me' whereas no revelation has come to him in anything! If only they could see themselves at the agony of death when the angels of death stretching forth their hands to disembody their souls saying, 'Deliver your souls! Today you shall suffer the humiliating torment for attributing to Allah nothing but falsehood and for turning your heads in contempt rejecting Allah's signs.'

Allah says in the Koran:

And who does greater evil than he who forges against Allah a lie or says, 'To me it has been revealed', when naught has been revealed to him, or he who says, 'I will send down the like of what Allah has sent down?' If thou couldst only see when the evildoers are in the agony of death and the angels are stretching out their hands: 'Give up your souls! Today you shall be recompensed with the chastisement of humiliation for what you said untruly about Allah, waxing proud against His signs (Al-An 'am, 93).

Because they are promulgating falsehood about Islam, the televangelists have become Satan's tool. They made Satan their guide. He made them promulgate false arguments in order to reject the Message of Truth.

These televangelists before establishing their churches or TV stations were just poor or ordinary people. But now, the millions of dollars they collect from their followers each year afford them living in mansions, own large properties, luxury cars, private jets, take exotic trips, relax in hotel rooms that cost thousands per night, and even own second and third homes.

With limited internal controls, and tax exempt, and a high level of secrecy, these televangelists are free to take great liberties with church donations, funds and resources.

The core cause of many televangelist scandals is the belief commonly known as the health-wealth gospel. Televangelists are the primary propagators of the idea that it is always God's will for all Christians to be perfectly healthy and financially wealthy. The essential message of the health-wealth gospel is that if you give money, God is obligated to bless you with health and wealth. If you give money, but are not blessed with health and wealth, you either did not give enough money, or do not have enough faith to truly receive the blessing. In this, health-wealth televangelists encourage people to give large sums of money, while preemptively explaining why the people are not blessed with health and wealth as they were promised. The clear result will always be: people are deceived, robbed and hurt.

Under the pretext of bringing food to the hungry, drilling water wells, providing medical clinics, rescuing orphans, and by occupying the minds of their followers with superstitions like the stories of people returning from the dead, life beyond the grave, learn how prayer can help you lose weight, etc... the televangelists steel people's money.

Some people may say, 'They deserve all this money and donations for leading God's people.' But do these people really believe that God would bless those in leadership with lifestyles that totally contradict everything that Jesus taught. Would Jesus have done so? When Jesus went out into the Desert Mountains to fast for forty days and nights, he did not take anything with him but the one set of clothes he was wearing. He slept in the wilderness. Wilderness was his bed.

As the Koran mentions, many of the Rabbis and monks devour in falsehood the money of men. These Rabbis and monks hoard up gold and silver and spend them not in the way of Allah. Allah announces unto them a painful torment. On the Day when that money, gold and silver will be heated in the Fire of Hell and with it, it will be branded their foreheads, their flanks, and their backs, and it will be said unto them, 'This is the treasure which you hoarded for yourselves. Now taste of what you used to hoard.'

We read in the Koran:

O believers, many of the rabbis and monks indeed consume the goods of the people in vanity and bar from Allah's way. Those who treasure up gold and silver, and do not expend them in the way of Allah - give them the good tidings of a painful chastisement, the day they shall be heated in the fire of Gehenna (Hell) and therewith their foreheads and their sides and their backs shall be branded: this is the thing you have treasured up for yourselves; therefore taste you now what you were treasuring (Al-Tawbah 34, 35).

Many televangelists exist outside the structures of Christian denominations, meaning that they are not accountable to anyone. The financial practices of televangelists are frequently unclear. A 2003 survey by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch indicated that only one out of the 17 televangelists researched were members of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability.

In addition to hoarding wealth and riches without right, the televangelists misguide their followers and made them share in the oppression of innocent people. The televangelists after joining forces with Zionists collect millions of dollars each year from their followers to build new Israeli settlements on the Palestinian land. Due to a distorted reading of the Bible, the Religious Right as presented by the televangelists believe that the second coming of Christ will not take place unless the whole of Palestine is emptied from the Palestinians. The plan is to steel the Palestinian land through building Israeli settlement on it with Christian money. Palestinian land therefore shrinks every day, and the Israeli tractors demolish the Palestinian houses without mercy to build new settlements on the stolen land. If the Palestinians object, it will be a good opportunity to picture them as terrorists desiring to throw the poor Israelis into the sea. Stealing the Palestinian land by building Israeli settlements on it with Christian money under the myth of hastening the second coming of Christ, as well as steeling the Palestinian water and electricity, and putting the Palestinian villages under siege had made the Palestinians life nearly impossible.

Both televangelists and their followers - the money givers - are considered transgressors in the sight of Allah. The innocent civilian Palestinians were driven out of their homes without reason. As the Koran teaches: Men and women of faith if they are hurt, those who oppressed them will suffer the penalty of a double guilt, i.e. their own sins to start with, and the injuries they caused to the innocent believing men and women. The persuaders (televangelists) and the money givers (followers) have born malice against themselves and shall stand manifest of a major sin.

The Koran says:

And those who hurt believing men and believing women without that they have earned it, have laid upon themselves calumny and manifest sin (Al-Ahzab, 58).

These oppressors must understand that if innocent men or women are oppressed or unjustly treated, their cries can ascend to Allah in prayer thus bringing Allah's wrath and curse upon their heads.

Several televangelists use their TV stations for political reasons instead of religious reasons (e.g., Pat Robertson, the deceased Jerry Falwell, Jimmy Swaggart, John Hagee and others), and often espouse conservative politics on their programs. Such televangelists may occasionally arouse controversy by making remarks deemed offensive on their programs or elsewhere, or by endorsing partisan political candidates on donor-paid airtime, at which point some have been threatened that they may have their tax-exempt status taken away if they reside in the United States.

Do these televangelists and their like reckon that Allah is unaware of their evildoing? Have they forgotten that they shall meet Allah - their Lord and unto Him they shall be returned? Or have they forgotten that Allah knows their secrets, and what they publish?

The Koran says:

Allah knows the Unseen in the heavens and the earth; He knows the thoughts within the breasts (Fatir, 38).

Are they so naïve as to think that they will be left uncontrolled? What is the matter with them, that they deny the greatness of Allah and His last Message to the world?

When it is said to them: 'You are wrong, and better stop this nonsense and blunder', pride takes them to sin. They increase in their transgression by inventing falsehood against Allah, and in leading others astray by hindering them from Allah's path. They do not know that Allah is wroth against them and He has cursed them and prepared for them an awful doom. Hell will settle their account.

If Muhammad was a liar – Allah forbid – his lying is upon his own head; but if he is truthful, then will fall on them the calamity of which he warns them. Muhammad calls them to salvation while they call their people to the Fire.

Allah says about those who hurt Him and His Messenger:

Those who hurt Allah and His Messenger – them Allah has cursed in the present world and the world to come, and has prepared for them a humbling chastisement (Al-Ahzab, 57).

When they belied the Koran, which is the truth from their Lord, and when they further burned it, they have admitted indeed their infidelity to Allah their Creator.

The Koran says:

Say, 'It is the truth (the Koran) from the Lord for you all. Then whosoever will, let him believe, and whosoever will, let him disbelieve. Lo! We have prepared for the disbelievers a Fire. Its tent encloses them. If they ask for showers, they will be showered with water like molten copper, that shall scald their faces – how evil a potion, and how evil a resting - place (Al-Kahf, 29).

As for their sponsors, I say: 'You spend your wealth to debar men from Allah's true and only religion – Islam. You will spend it, then it will become anguish for you, then you will be conquered, and in the end, you will be all gathered into Hell, an evil resting place.

Allah says about the evildoers who spend their money to bar from His right way:

The unbelievers expend their wealth to bar from Allah's way, and still they will expend it, till it is an anguish for them, then be overthrown, and the unbelievers will be mustered into Gehenna (Hell), that Allah may distinguish the corrupt from the good, and place the corrupt one upon another, and so heap them up all together, and put them in Gehenna; those are the losers (Al-Anfal 36, 37).

For the sake of honesty, however, it is important to denote that Barack Obama, the American icon, and the Afro-American President of the United States, took a firm stand against the spread of Islam phobia in the American society. As a good politician, He realized that solidarity is the tie that binds people together. Solidarity if prevailing, human rights can be respected and nurtured in the social condition. Solidarity encourages striving for relationships that tend toward equality on the local, national, and international levels. All members of the human community must be brought as fully as possible into the circle of productive and creative relationships. When hate against a marginalized group gains momentum and spreads its venom in society, the outcome becomes dreadful.

President Obama realized that he had a special commitment to the most vulnerable and marginalized population in the American society – the Muslims. He realized that the unity of the nation cannot be fully realized when people suffer discrimination, oppression, and social alienation, leading to isolation from the larger community.

President Obama realized that solidarity yields a healthy society, a thriving economy, and care for those on the margins.

This is why President Obama took a firm stand from Franklin Graham. In May 2010, the Obama Administration banned Franklin Graham from speaking at the Pentagon because his comments about Islam were inappropriate.

Graham in 2001 described Islam as evil. More recently, he has said he finds Islam offensive and wants Muslims to know that Jesus Christ died for their sins.

Army spokesman Col. Tom Collins said, 'We're an all-inclusive military. We honour all faiths. ... Our message to our service and civilian work force is about the need for diversity and appreciation of all faiths.'

Retired General Colin Powell endorsed Barack Obama for President. He pointedly remarked: I am . . . troubled by, not what Senator McCain says, but what members of the party say. And it is permitted to be said such things as, "Well, you know that Mr. Obama is a Muslim." Well, the correct answer is, he is not a Muslim, he is a Christian. He has always been a Christian. But the right answer is what if he is? Is there something wrong with being a Muslim in this country? The answer is no, that is not America. Is there something wrong with some seven-year-old Muslim-American kid believing that he or she could be president? Yet, I have heard senior members of my own party drop the suggestion, "He's a Muslim and he might be associated terrorists." This is not the way we should be doing it in America."

The wonderful actor, producer, and director, Ben Affleck, denounced intolerance in the United States and defended the Muslims right to live in peace in the United States.

We want to see more people of sound judgment like Colin Powell, and Ben Affleck in the American society. People that would respect the fact that characterizes the American society – acceptance of diverse ethnic cultures, and multiculturalism.

Graham, and those known as Christian leaders and sometimes known as false prophets, as well as the Islam phobia hate mongers (the gang), tried hard to portray Obama as a Muslim in order to belittle him and undermine his chances to win a second term in the White House. As if being a Muslim was a crime against humanity.

When Obama won a second term in the White House, Franklin Graham got mad. He reiterated his belief that America has turned its back on God by re-electing President Obama and declared that God will judge this nation for doing so by bringing America to its knees through a massive economic collapse in order to wake people up and turn them back to Him. He also said that Christians would be “compromising” their faith if they voted for Obama.

The winning of Obama in the last elections, gave Graham, Pat Robertson and the other false prophets, and all the members of the gang a big blow. They certainly failed in their endeavour to belittle Obama, and to convince the majority that Islam was evil; they rather suffered defeat and humiliation.

History testifies that the spread of hatred in a society leads to disastrous consequences. Hatred towards Jews has led to the massacre of millions in concentration camps during the Second World War. It is troublesome when vilification intensifies until it becomes normal and no one raises eyebrows anymore and considers bullying the victim as part of the freedom of expression package.

Muslims, in spite of their negative portrayal in the media as beasts, are not responsible for the massive blood that is spilled in human history. Muslims did not orchestrate both world wars, which have resulted to the death of millions.

Muslims were not behind the usage of nuclear weapons against Hiroshima and Nagasaki, which resulted in death and destruction on a massive scale.

Neither were they behind the transatlantic slave trade (1501-1867), which sold at least 12.5 million black Africans as slaves. Of these, 1.8 million died at sea. Most of the rest were worked to death within seven years in the sugar cane fields of Brazil and the Caribbean.

Muslims were not responsible for the genocide against native Indians who were annihilated by the European settlers. David E. Stannard in his book, 'American Holocaust' wrote, "The destruction of the Indians of the Americas was, far and away, the most massive act of genocide in the history of the world."

As indicated by the website Religious Tolerance, author Carmen Bernard estimates that the Native population of what is now Mexico were reduced from 30 million to only 3 million over four decades.

These Islam phobia hate mongers spreading discord in the American society, whether are Senators in the Congress, neoconservatives, the Religious Right, Tea Party, Judaeo-Christian coalition, the gang, Zionists, and televangelists are but traitors to their country. Their attack against Islam led to nothing but the decomposition of those ties of trust and loyalty, which link citizen to citizen, and disarray of foreign and domestic policy.

The cumulative effect of such hate monger groups is that the Muslims are despised and demonized which gives legitimacy to harass Muslims at airports. Every Muslim becomes a potential terrorist in the minds of the people, their immigration to the U.S. is discouraged and their petitions for immigration and visa requests are postponed much longer than other people, their complaints of discrimination is ignored. They are targeted by the traffic police and given tickets unnecessarily.

These hate monger groups are working very aggressively against Islam through dissemination of lies in their publications, audio and video tapes, radio and TV talk shows and legislative actions. The result of such hostility is that the Muslims living in America develop distaste of the society; therefore, their integration into the American society is hampered. Muslims, under adverse conditions, develop their cocoons within which they live as a community - they live in America yet they are dissociated from it. (2)

The scandals rock one televangelist after another. It does not stop. It is worse than the Roman Catholics and paedophilia in numbers. It is worse than the Episcopalians in numbers of openly homosexual priests are, at least so far. Frankly, the greed of the self-styled conservative-Republican-Christian televangelists is just another form of unchecked lust just as are paedophilia and homosexuality.

All this decadence just gives Christianity such a terrible image to the Christians. It is deplorable. Where are the standards in these people's minds?

The gang committed excesses in the land in defiance of right, but their defiance is against their own selves. They must understand that they are not in a position ever to neither overpower Allah nor escape His punishment. They have no besides Allah protectors to defend them. Their punishment shall be doubled because of their obstinacy against Allah's religion and His sincere servants. Their torment will be severe because of their struggle to assert falsehood. They are the ones who have lost their own souls and the fancies they invented have left them in the lurch.

These morons must understand that all their attempts to hit Islam were useless because Allah guards His religion.

The Koran says:

Assuredly Allah will defend those who believe; surely Allah loves not any ungrateful traitor (Al-Hajj, 38).

The gang and its supporters did however one thing, they spread tumult and oppression on earth, and great mischief. But they must understand that Allah will not grant them any way over the Muslims. The only fate ordained for them is their meeting with death in despair and frustration, and being deprived of Allah's grace forever.

These false prophets instead of occupying the minds of their followers with fictitious legends, trifles, ravings and nonsense, in addition to falsehood about Islam, they had better hasten to study the Koran – the Book they mock at, belie, defile and burn – in order to know the true religion of Jesus. Of course, these televangelists know perfectly well that the Gospels they have in position were corrupted and the true teachings of Jesus were lost. The Koran is the only Book that stood the test of time, and Allah has guarded it from corruption until the Day of Resurrection. In it, they can learn that Allah has only one religion – the religion given to Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Jesus and Muhammad, and that is Islam – Allah is One, and He is the only one to be worshipped without associating with Him Jesus as God or son of God.

If they read the Koran carefully - the universal Book, which came to the whole world and to them in particular - they will realize that the Koran came to warn them against a terrible chastisement if they do not abstain from worshipping Jesus, the man, the son of Mary. The Koran came to condemn all the inventions their ancestors invented in Jesus religion.

The Koran clearly states that Jesus never said that he was God or the son of God, he rather emphasized that he is the servant of Allah. The Koran explained that the true religion of Jesus was pure monotheism – Allah is One with no partners and that he must be worshipped alone. The Koran teaches that Jesus is not God or the son of God. Associating Jesus or any other deities with Allah in worship is glaring blasphemy. The Koran stated that Jesus was not crucified but Allah honoured him, responded to his prayer and uplifted him to Him; in the Koran vicarious atonement is condemned and personal responsibility is insisted on. No soul laden bears the load of another, and if one heavy-burdened call for its load to be carried, not a thing of it will be carried, though he be a near relative; the Koran shows clearly that no original sin is to be inherited from Adam because Adam's sin was forgiven.

In short, Allah will never accept a man standing before Him on the Day of Judgment saying, 'My lord! I worshipped you as one in three or three in one.' (For further reading see mohsenelguindy.com – "How Islam looks at traditional Christianity" – Book 2).

But are these televangelist up to the task? Are they ready to call for religious reformation and make amends, or they are drowned in the pleasures of the evanescent fleeting world, and it is easier for them to rely on the false system of worship their ancestors invented in Jesus religion? Are they willing to stop the ranting they stuff the minds of their followers with, or is it more profitable and easier to deceive their people with meaningless ardour speeches, and then steal their money under the pretension of helping the poor and supporting the widows!

On the Day of Resurrection, they will be responsible for every word the Koran mentioned about the true religion of Jesus. Now they know the truth, now they will be held responsible for it before Allah.

On the Day of Judgment they will be responsible before Allah about every ugly word they uttered against His only religion – Islam. Everything is recorded. Nothing which they did or say is lost - good- or evil. All their deeds are recorded in their books of deeds, every action small or great is written down.

We read in the Koran:

Everything that they have done is in the Scrolls, and everything, great or small, is inscribed (Al-Qamar, 53).

Nothing misses the recording angel, and whatever is said in the record is true.

The Koran says:

Today you shall be recompensed for that you were doing. This is Our Book, that speaks against you the truth. We have been registering all that you were doing (Al-Jathiyah, 29).

They became tyrannical and arrogant towards Muslims. They hoped for victory over Muslims by spreading lies and falsehood, but people realized their snare, so their hope was doomed to disappointment. The enemies of Allah must expect punishment in this world, and worth shall be the punishment in the world to come, no one will defend them against Allah.

The Koran says:

For them is chastisement in the present life, and the chastisement in the world to come is more grievous; they have none to defend them from Allah (Al-Ra'd, 13).

Their punishment in Hell will be so severe that they will find themselves constantly on the verge of death and destruction, but the door of escape by annihilation shall be also closed to them. In Hell, they will be given for drink boiling fetid water. In gulps will they sip it, but never they will be near swallowing it down their throats; death will come to them from every quarter, yet they will not die, and in front of them will be a chastisement unrelenting.

The Koran says:

...and frustration was the lot of every obstinate transgressor – beyond him Gehenna, and he is given to drink of oozing pus, the which he gulps, and can scarce swallow, and death comes upon him from every side, yet he cannot die; and still beyond him is a harsh chastisement (Ibrahim 15-17).

These televangelists, the gang, their supporters and hypocrite applauders, mocked at the Koran, belied it, burned it and slandered the Prophet. They preached their people falsehood and barred them from the right path. Their responsibility of crime is two-fold: (1) they rejected Allah's Message, and (2) they misled others. Their penalty will also be doubled, because they will be responsible before their Creator for their own sins and the sin of misleading others, without relieving those misled of their responsibility.

The Koran says:

That they bear their loads complete on the Day of Resurrection, and some of the loads of those they led astray without any knowledge. O evil the load they bear (Al-Nahl, 25).

By Allah, they shall be questioned about all that they used to fabricate.

By sending the last of the Prophets, Allah has ordained for people to find the true divine path amidst the jungle of religious differences. The Prophet was sent with the Koran for three purposes: (1) that he should bring about unity among the jarring sects; (2) that the revelation should be a guide to right conduct; and (3) that it would show the path of repentance and salvation, and thus be the highest mercy to erring sinners.

The Koran says:

And We have not sent down upon thee the Book except that thou mayest make clear to them that whereon they were at variance, and as a guidance and as a mercy to a people who believe (Al-Nahl, 64).

Those who oppose Allah and hurt His Messenger will be those who have lost their souls and in Hell will they abide. The Fire will scorch their faces, and they will abide therein with lips disfigured. Allah will say to them, 'Were not My signs recited to you, and did you not reject them?' They will say, 'Lord, misfortune overcame us and we became an erring people. Lord, deliver us from Hell, if we ever return to evil, then indeed we shall be wrongdoers.' Allah will say, 'Remain you in it with ignominy! And speak you not to Me!'

We read in the Koran:

Then he whose scales are heavy – they are the prosperous, and he whose scales are light – they have lost their souls in Gehenna dwelling forever, the Fire smiting their faces, and therein they will grin, with displaced lips. 'What, were My signs not recited to you, and you cried them lies?' They shall say, 'Our Lord, our adversity prevailed over us; we were an erring people. Our Lord, bring us forth out of it! Then, if we revert, we shall be evildoers indeed.' 'Slink you into it.' He shall say, and do not speak to Me.' (Al-Mu'minun 103-108).

On the Day of Judgment the evil of their actions will then become clear to them, and that which they used to mock at (the Koran) will completely encircle them. And Allah will say to them, 'This Day we will forget you as you forgot the meeting of this Day of yours. And your abode is the Fire, and there is none to help you. This because you took the revelations (the Koran) of Allah in mockery, and the life of the world deceived you. So, today, you will not be brought out of the Fire, nor you will be allowed to make amends.

The Koran says:

And the evil deeds that they have done shall appear to them, and they shall be encompassed by that they mocked at. And it shall be said, 'Today We do forget you, even as you forgot the encounter of this your day; and your refuge is the Fire, and you shall have no helpers. That is for that you took Allah's signs in mockery, and the present life deluded you.' So today they shall not be brought forth from it, nor will they be given the chance to make amends (Al-Jathiyah 33-35).

Souls so dead as theirs are indeed wretched. Souls arrogant and obstinate and resort to falsehoods. Souls listen to the most beautiful Message but not profit by it. The loss is their own, and grievous it is.

The Koran says:

Woe to every guilty impostor who hears the signs of Allah being recited to him, then perseveres in waxing proud, as if he has not heard them; so give him the good tidings of a painful chastisement. And when he knows anything of Our signs, he takes them in mockery; those – for them awaits a humbling chastisement. Behind them Gehenna; and that they have earned shall not avail them aught, nor those they took as protectors, apart from Allah; for them awaits a mighty chastisement. This is guidance; and those who disbelieve in the signs of their lord, there awaits them a painful chastisement of wrath (Al-Jathiyah 7-11).

The works of these hypocrite liars are the useless rubbish, exactly like ashes whereupon the wind blows strong upon a tempestuous day; they gained nothing from their evil work but disgrace in the present life and a severe torment in the Hereafter.

These hypocrite liars must understand that they are not in a position to neither overpower Allah nor escape His punishment. Nor do they have besides Allah protectors to defend them against Him. Their punishment shall be doubled because of their struggle to assert falsehood. They are the ones who have lost their own souls and the fancies they invented have left them in the lurch.

What is the matter with them that they deny the greatness of Allah? Do they reckon they shall be left to go about at will? Accursed be man, how he fights against his own good the best he can! Perish man! How unthankful you are! The Koran came to all of you from your Lord. The lord of all that exists, the Lord of all people. It is the truth from your Lord. It is a reminder to whosoever wills to go straight. So where are you people going? This is a Message for you all; for those who wish to take the straight path.

What is the matter with them? What has made them careless about their Lord, the Most Generous? Who created them, fashioned them perfectly and gave them due proportion. In whatever form He willed, He put them together. Nay! But they forgot the Day of Recompense – the Day when no soul will be able to do anything for another, and the decision that day, will be wholly with Allah.

Do they not realize that they will be resurrected for reckoning on a great Day? The day when mankind will stand before Allah – the Lord of the universe? Woe that Day to Allah's enemies from the burning flames of Hell.

Surely, they love the fleeting life, and leave behind them a heavy Day.

Know they not that Allah does see what they do? Woe unto the deniers of the Koran, woe unto the slanderers of the prophet, who have gathered riches thinking their riches have made them immortal. No indeed; they shall be thrust into the crushing Fire; the Fire of Allah kindled roaring over the sinners, covered down upon them in columns outstretched.
