

Sarah Paline watch your tongue before you talk about Allah the Lord of the Supreme Throne

By

Dr. Mohsen El-Guindy

Former Alaska Gov. Sarah Palin criticized the Obama administration's decision to supply weapons to the rebels in the civil war in Syria, arguing that the U.S. should "Let Allah sorts it out" until there is a stronger leader in the White House.

"Militarily, where is our commander in chief? We are talking now more new interventions. I say until we know what we're doing, until we have a commander in chief who knows what he's doing, well, let these radical Islamic countries who aren't even respecting basic human rights, where both sides are slaughtering each other as they scream over an arbitrary red line, 'Allah Akbar,' I say until we have someone who knows what they're doing, I say let Allah sorts it out," Palin said at the Faith and Freedom Coalition Conference.

From the political point of view, Paline might have some logical reasons, but what I did not like about her rhetoric was her saying:

- 1- "Let these radical Islamic countries who aren't respecting basic human rights where both sides are slaughtering each other as they scream over an arbitrary red line Allah Akbar."
- 2- "I say until we have someone who knows what they are doing, I say let Allah sort it out."

Commenting on point 1, I am amazed to see that paline is either ignorant about what was really going on in Syria or she was hiding the facts from her audience. This slaughtering happening in Iraq, Syria, Yemen, and Libya, this slaughtering that Paline pictured as a violation of basic human rights and thus portraying Islamic countries by radicalism, is in fact an American plot against the Middle East. The plot is called 'the New Middle East'. The objective is to reshape the Middle East by dividing it into religious and ethnic factions and sects living in small sectors without borders, so that America could draw the map of the Middle East according to its geostrategic needs and objectives. In order to carry out such inhuman plan, the U.S. government created ISIS, to wipe out the despotic rulers of the Middle East and replace them with more malleable Islamist leaders who will tear the Middle East apart. The Islamic militia were trained, armed and financed by the U.S. then implanted in Iraq, Syria, Yemen, Egypt, and Libya to create chaos (Condoleezza Rice described this chaos as “creative”). These militias burned the Middle East countries to the ground and caused the slaughters and massacres, which Paline described as “both sides are slaughtering each other” thus picturing the Arabs as savages and bloodthirsty!

This vicious plan has led to millions of deaths, displacements and refugees now scattered on the borders of foreign countries without shelter, food or water! Yet when they reached the borders of America, they were rejected and accused by terrorism! Is not that what Donald Trump, Ben Carson and several other hate monger Islamophobia Republicans said?

Sara Paline, while you are describing the Arab countries with radicalism and bloodthirsty, you must realize that America’s hands - this country claiming that she respects basic human rights - are stained with the blood of the innocents, and in return she will pay a dear price for oppressing others without right except for her greed for the Arab oil.

American oppression is the reason behind all the ordeals inflicting the countries of the Middle East at the social, political, or economic levels. Due to the American proxy wars in the Middle East, seditions reign, individual and social relations disintegrate, and poverty and deprivation prevail; and the entire ecosystem deranges.

Allah repeatedly points out in the Koran that He dislikes the oppressors and the unjust, for they would be in a manifest error and they shall realize the black fate awaiting them on the Day of Judgment.

The American oppression is obvious in her acts exercised against the downtrodden people, in Iraq, Afghanistan, Syria, Libya, Yemen and Palestine. It was also prevalent in her attempts to close in at all the downtrodden and developing peoples, to the interest of her own peoples, by placing her hands on their oil and mineral fortunes and controlling the people's policies and security, and even their cultures and religions.

The consequences of oppression are terrible. Nothing more than oppression drives Allah to deny His blessings and hasten His wrath, for Allah hears the calls of the oppressed. He who oppresses the servants of Allah will be held accountable by Allah on the day of Judgment, and in the present life will be perished by his oppression.

Allah has deemed oppression the reason behind the collapse of civilizations and the weakness of societies, for He says:

"So those are their houses fallen down because they were unjust, most surely there is a sign in this for a people who know." (27:52).

The oppressors must not rest assured if Allah gives them respite and does not hasten their punishment. He does that until they think that He let go of them, then He would retaliate with one blow, for He says:

"And let not those who disbelieve think that Our granting them respite is better for their souls; We grant them respite only that they may add to their sins; and they shall have a disgraceful chastisement." (Al-Imran, 178).

The worst, cruellest, and hardest act of oppression, is the oppression of the weak, for it was narrated that the Messenger of Allah peace be upon him said:

"Allah's wrath intensifies against he who oppresses the person who finds no helper apart from Him."

The Prophet said of what is related from his Lord:

"O My servants, I have made oppression unlawful for Me and unlawful for you, so do not commit oppression against one another."

Allah says in the Koran:

And Allah wills no injustice for his slaves (Ghafir, 31).

America must not forget that Allah has destroyed many evil nations and brought forth another people after them. When the evil people sensed destruction and felt Allah's might, they ran away from it. But the angels said to them scornfully: 'Do not run away! Return to the comforts, which you were given to enjoy and your dwelling-places, you may have much to answer for. They said, 'Woe to us! This is our destruction! We have indeed been doing wrong'. They kept bewailing their misfortune, until Allah reduced them to a useless form like reaped field of corn - dead, like the stillness of fire when it is extinguished.

Allah says in His Koran:

How many a city that was evildoing we have destroyed, and set up after it another people! Then, when they perceived Our might, behold, they ran heading out of it. 'Run not! Return you unto the luxury that you exulted in, and your dwelling places; haply you shall be questioned.' They said, 'Alas for us! We have been evildoers.' And that cry of theirs ceased not until We made them (like) lifeless stubble (dead) (Al-Anbiya', 11-15).

Commenting on point 2, Sarah Palin said scornfully, "I say until we have someone who knows what they are doing, I say let Allah sort it out."

Allah knows for sure why the massacre going on in the Middle East has been committed. He knows the perpetrators and the killers. He knows the vicious plot against the innocents, and He sees the bloodshed of the victims. He knows those who prepared the scene for killing and murdering without right. And here, Allah will sort it out, not until a strong commander of chief who comes to know what they are doing in Syria, but He will sort it out according to the truth America concealed from the people about her plot against the innocents, and the oppression she exercised against the Arab nations. Allah sorted the truth out from falsehood and revealed the plot America concealed from the people.

Falsehood is always apt to perish in the wreck of time, and truth must ever prevail.

Allah says in His Holy Book the Koran:

'The truth has come, and falsehood has vanished away; surely falsehood is ever certain to vanish.' (Al-Isra', 81).

Sarah Paline, when you talk about Allah, you must talk about Him in awe and reverence because He is also your God. Your god is not the man Jesus Christ the son of Mary, your god is not a man nailed to the cross, your god is not one in three or three in one. Your God is Allah, the One and only true God. Do not say that Allah is the God of the Muslims and not ours as the polytheist unbelievers say. Your Lord is Allah, the Just, the Supreme, the Mighty, the majestic, the Greatest, the Avenger, and the most High. Watch your tongue because every word good or bad uttered from your mouth is recorded, and will be laid to your charge on the Day of Resurrection.

The ugly words about Islam uttered from you and the haters of Islam in your circle are not just going to vanish in the air, on the contrary, they have very bad consequences. As Islam teaches, two recording angels had been assigned for each person. These angels are honourable scribes and their duty is to write down all the good and bad deeds.

The Koran says:

“. . . and He sends guardians (angels guarding and writing all of one's good and bad deeds) over you . . .” (Al-An'am, 61).

“Or do they think that We hear not their secrets and their private counsel? (Yes We do) and Our Messengers (appointed angels in charge of humankind) are by them, to record.” (Az-Zukhruf, 80).

“(Remember!) that the two receivers (recording angels) receive (each human being after he or she has attained the age of puberty), one sitting on the right and one on the left (to note his or her actions). Not a word does he (or she) utter, but there is a watcher by him ready (to record it).” (Qaf, 17-18).

“But verily, over you (are appointed angels in charge of humankind) to watch you, honourable, writing down (your deeds).” (Al-Infitar, 10-11).

Two angels, on the right and the left, record his deeds. The one on the right writes down good deeds and the one on the left writes down evil deeds.

Sarah Paline, you and the other notorious Islamophobe hate mongers, had better watch your tongue when you talk about Allah and His religion. Do not bring forth His wrath upon you. He is watching over you and over all His creation during the day and during the night, he never sleeps. He knows what the breasts reveal and what they conceal. He is Everlasting.

Do not mess with Allah and take heed, because He might afflict you with calamities in the present life you cannot endure, and in the Hereafter His torture is ever terrible and most severe. In the present life, Allah afflicts His servants with fear and hunger, loss in wealth, health and lives, and crops. Loss of dear sons and daughters, defamation...etc. You cannot endure any of these!

Listen to the Koran:

Surely, We will try you with something of fear and hunger, and diminution of goods and lives and fruits; yet give thou good tidings unto the patient (Al-Baqarah, 155).

Have fear and consciousness of Allah and ponder over events that happen around you. Learn lessons from them and remember, for the intelligent one is he who remembers and takes admonition.

Whatever misfortune befalls you is because of your own doing.

Allah says:

Whatever affliction may visit you is for what your hands have earned; and He pardons much (Ash-Shurah, 30).

He also says:

"Whatever good visits you, it is of Allah; whatever evil visits you, it is from yourself. And We have sent you a Messenger to mankind; Allah suffices as a witness (Al-Nisa', 79).

According to Allah's law, evildoers are punished in this life, and in the Hereafter, they will be thrown in Hell for eternity,

The Holy Koran summarizes this plainly and clearly in its revelation again and again, warning mankind to mend their ways to save themselves from the consequences of their actions and deeds in this world and the world to come:

"And there befell them the evils of that which they had earned. And [the same will happen to] people of the present time who are bent on wrongdoing, the evil that they earn will fall upon them. They cannot escape the consequences" (Az-Zumar, 51).

"Certain it is that the wrong- doers will not prosper" (Al-An'am, 135).

"And [in the end,] the last remnant of those folk who had been bent on evildoing was wiped out. For all praise is due to Allah, the Sustainer of all the worlds" (Al-An'am, 6.45).

In order to exploit the resources of the developing world, America oppresses and tears the Middle East apart under the guise of human rights, democracy, justice and free speech, when in reality; it is only for catastrophic greed. America fools the people that she has a mission of peace, when she has not even a true perception of right and wrong. By her blind arrogance, she depresses good and encourages evil.

"And when they are told, "Do not make mischief on earth," they answer, 'We are only ones that puts things right.' Truly, they are the workers of corruption but they are not aware (Al-Baqarah, 11).

Sarah Paline, as a woman living in a materialistic world, you put worldly interest first, total and unconditional devotion to truth appears unwise, for your true allegiance is to your worldly interests; only on artificial level can you attach yourself to the truth. You consider yourself clever, and you get yourself a round of applause here and there. However, this is no more than hypocrisy, which keeps on growing.

The Tea Party you are proud to be one of its prominent members became the plague of America. This party was based on racism and religiosity instead of sound political ideas. The Tea Party lives on seething rage and constant denial.

..."No! No. Absolutely not. Our great nation was founded by Christians for Christians. Put God back in the classroom; put the Ten commandments in every courthouse. We are not racist. We have President Obama because he is a social tyrant, born in Kenya and is destroying our God-given Constitution. He is not country. He is not one of us, we are real Americans. We will take our country back”...

This type of inflammatory rhetoric echoed from every Tea Party rally, and continues today; strident baloney, blatant nonsense. Virulence and rage reverberate unceasingly. Tea people pretend to hate government simply as cover for its racism and fanatic religiosity (1).

The contribution of the Tea Party to the race of the Republicans for the 2016 presidency is ridiculous and not adequately planned. A part of the GOP problem is the plague of too many candidates, 17 at last count, with many of them competing for headlines by making outrageous statements targeting Hispanics, Muslims, President Obama, Hillary Clinton, or each other. They apparently feel the need to do so because not only Donald Trump— being the master of outrage— continues to draw the most media attention, but also because, as Trump's poll numbers demonstrate, a significant body of Republican voters feed off the anger and insult that is being dished out.

Instead of a serious policy debate, Americans are forced to endure a campaign based on xenophobia, personality attacks, and crude taunts.

Trump continued his rant against "illegals"; Ted Cruz called his party's legislative leader "a liar" on the floor of the Senate; Scott Walker was slightly more refined accusing his party's leaders of making "false promises"; Mike Huckabee charged that with the Iran deal, Obama was marching Israelis into the ovens; and Marco Rubio criticized Trump saying that America didn't need another president with "no class", because we already have a president with "no class".

The thoughtful candidates on the Republican side who have ideas worth examining have been drowned out by the excessive news coverage given to the demeaning verbal antics of their erstwhile challengers.

Responsible Republicans warned that a monster was being created that would first attack the president and Democrats but would ultimately turn on the GOP and devour it, as well. The party paid no heed to these warnings and, believing that they could ride this insurgency to victory, they fed the beast of anger and frustration. The warnings proved true. In statewide elections, moderate Republicans were defeated by the "Tea Party" and the establishment of the GOP found itself losing control of its base.

Well, Sarah Paline, since the Tea Party is not the subject matter of this article, what I wrote here was just a quick note about its decline to reform the social and political life of America.

Going back to Allah, His name must be uttered with reverence and submissiveness. We Muslims entertain the profound reverence dutiful to Him, and we praise Him and extoll His glorious attributes. We revere Him in a manner appropriate to His absolute Sovereignty.

Allah says in the Koran:

Believers fear Allah as He should be feared. And die not except in a state of Islam (as Muslims with complete submission to Allah). (Al-Imran, 102).

Allah also says:

Mankind, fear your Lord, who created you of a single soul, and from it created its mate, and from the pair of them scattered many men and women far and wide; and fear Allah in whose name you make requests of one another. Beware of severing the ties of kinship. Allah is always watching over you (Al-Nisa', 1).

Those who chose to mock Allah and His verses, His prophets and the believers will enter the fire of Hell, where they will suffer their bitter "reward" for mocking Allah's religion. The Hell prepared for such people is everlasting, because after the Day of Judgment they will be ignored and kept far from Allah's mercy, just as they had ignored and forgotten the Day of Reckoning.

Allah says:

And the evil deeds that they have done shall appear to them, and they shall be encompassed by that they mocked at. And it shall be said, 'Today We do forget you just as you forgot your appointment with this Day; and your refuge is the Fire, and you shall have no helpers. That is for that you took Allah's signs in mockery, and the present life deluded you.' So today they shall not be brought forth from it, nor will they be given the chance to make amends (Al-Jatayah, 33-37).

Those who mock at Allah and his Revelation will be mocked at on the Day of Judgment, and then their final abode will be hell-Fire for eternity.

Woe to every guilty imposter who hears the signs of Allah being recited to him, yet persists in his arrogance as if he had never heard them; so give him the good tidings of a painful chastisement. And when he knows anything of Our signs, he takes them in mockery; those - for them awaits a humbling chastisement. Hell [lurks] behind them; and that they have earned will not benefit them, nor those they took as protectors, apart from Allah – a tremendous torment awaits them. This is true guidance and those who disbelieve in the signs of their Lord will have a woeful torment (Al-Jatayah, 7-11).

Those mocking at Allah and His revelations, their mocking will recoil on them on the day of accountability and they will be encompassed by the same things they turned into ridicule.

The torment of Allah to the unbelievers who rejected His signs and mocked at His Revelation does not mean that He did them injustice, but it was they who wronged themselves.

Allah says:

...and Allah wronged them not, but themselves they wronged. So the evil things they have done smote them, and they were encompassed by that they mocked at (Al-Nahl, 33-34).

The House Republican caucus remains the place where the ugly head of Islamophobia rests comfortably. Tea Party affiliated Republicans excelled in attacking Islam without knowledge or authority. So far, such strategy is winning support from conservatives influential in picking the nominee. They do not fear political cost because they see Muslims as a small voting bloc. These fear monger Republicans include Joe Walsh, Allen West, Peter King, Ben Carson, Donald Trump, Michel Bachmann, Mike McCaul, Louie Gohmert, and Trent Franks. In addition to these Islamophobia hate mongers, we have another gang hired by Judeo-Christian coalition working ardently against Islam. They form an Islamophobia industry heavily sponsored by Religious Right and American Zionist organizations. They were exceptional in tarnishing Islam, belying the Koran, slandering the Prophet, and humiliating Allah the Creator. Their dirt reached to the extent of burning the Koran. To mention only few: Daniel Pipes, Sam Shamoun, bill warner, the devil incarnate Robert Spencer, the women astray Pamela Geller, Ayaan Hirsi, and the fool Geert wilders of Holland.

The Evangelical Christian leaders known also as false prophets by some Americans joined also the comedy. They vomited from their dirty mouths foul epithets about Islam and the Prophet of Islam; these were Pat Robertson, franklin Graham, the deceased Jerry Falwell, Jimmy Swaggart, john Hagee, and Benny Hinn.

Due to their ignorance, these fools do not know that every dirty word they uttered against Allah will be laid to their charge as I explained before. The fools have taken Satan as a friend and they do not know that he is inviting them to the blazing Fire. He made them take Allah their Creator as the enemy!

These morons think that by bashing Islam and Muslims are doing something good to their country, but the fact is they were hired and heavily financed to do such dirty job. All they have done in fact was to spread mischief in the land by spreading dissension between Muslim and non-Muslim Americans. They harmed the feeling of American Muslims as well as one billion and five hundred million Muslims living in mostly all parts of the world. These opportunists are in fact unpatriotic, because they do not care about the solidarity of the American society. They are like cancer destroying the body of the society and must be stopped. But what we hear from them is the sarcastic saying: "We are a free country; the constitution allows us to say whatever we like to say...bla, bla, bla."

These fools do not understand that by attacking the Creator and His religion have invoked His wrath on their empty heads and on their country. Allah's wrath might come individually or collectively! Individually by singling out the committers of sins, and collectively by destroying the whole country because it allowed the sins to grow and did not lift a finger to stop it.

Allah says regarding the recompense of His enemies in the Hereafter:

That is the recompense of Allah's enemies – the Fire, wherein they shall have the abode of eternity as recompense, for that they denied Our signs (Fussilat, 28).

Some of the biggest misconceptions that many non-Muslims have about Islam have to do with the word "Allah." For various reasons, many people have come to believe that Muslims worship a different God than Christians and Jews. This is false, since "Allah" is simply the Arabic word for "God" - and there is only One God. The God of Muslims is the God of the universe, the God of Muhammad and all prophets who came before him, including Noah, Abraham, Moses and Jesus.

Allah says in the Koran:

Say (O Muslims), "We believe in Allah and that which has been sent down to us and that which has been sent down to Ibrahim (Abraham), Isma'ili (Ishmael), Ishaque (Isaac), Ya'qub (Jacob), and to Al-Asbat [the twelve sons of Ya'qub (Jacob)], and that which has been given to Musa (Moses) and 'Iesa (Jesus), and that which has been given to the Prophets from their Lord. We make no distinction between any of them, and to Him we have submitted [in Islam] (Al-Baqarah, 136).

Therefore, the Islam Muhammad brought is not a new religion but the culmination and fulfilment of the same basic truth that Allah (God) revealed through all His prophets to every people.

As there is only One God, there is only One Religion. Islam is the preserved pure religion of all prophets sent by Allah. Islam means the complete submission and obedience to Allah (God). Therefore, all prophets were indeed Muslims because they were true submitters to the will of Allah, the Creator.

Judaism, Christianity and Islam all claim to be "Abrahamic Faiths" and all of them are also classified as "monotheistic." However, Islam teaches that other religions have, in one way or another, distorted and nullified a pure and proper belief in Almighty God by neglecting His true teachings and mixing them with man-made ideas such as the concepts of the Trinity, divine incarnation original sin, crucifixion, vicarious atonement.

We read in the Koran:

"Truly, the religion with Allah (God) is Islam. Those who were given the Scripture (Jews and Christians) did not differ except, out of mutual jealousy, after knowledge had come to them. And whoever disbelieves in the signs of Allah, then surely, Allah is swift in calling to account." (Al-Imran, 19).

We also read"

"And whoever seeks a religion other than Islam, it will never be accepted of him, and in the Hereafter he will be one of the losers." (Al-Imran, 85).

Sarah Paline, again, and based on the above, before you talk about Allah next time, His Greatness and Might must always be present in your mind. This would make you talk about Him in reverence and humility.

If you do not know how Allah is Great and Almighty, read the verse of the Throne:

Allah! There is no God but He, the Living, the Everlasting. Slumber seizes Him not, neither sleep; to Him belongs all that is in the heavens and the earth. Who could intercede in His presence save by His leave? He knows what lies before them and what is after them, and they comprehend not anything of His knowledge save such as He wills. His Throne comprises the heavens and earth; the preserving of them oppresses Him not; He is the All-High, the All-glorious (Al-Baqarah, 255).

If you do not know Allah's infinite Glory and power read the next verse:

He is Allah; there is no god but He. He is the King, the Holy, the All-Peaceable, the All-Faithful, the All-Preserver, the All-Mighty, the All-Compeller, the All-Sublime. Glory be to Allah, above that they associate. He is Allah, the Creator, the Maker, the Shaper. To Him belongs the Names Most Beautiful. All that in the heavens and the earth magnifies Him; He is the All-Mighty, the All-Wise (Al-Hashr, 22-24).
